Dear Family Member:

In the story I'm reading, a young girl sees the geese fly to her pond in the spring. She is very happy until she sees a goose with only one foot. In Goose's Story, many things happen. Each thing makes something else happen. I hope something happens that will make the goose able to fly away with the other geese.

Hip Hop Happening

The goose lost her foot. Let's draw a line to what each event caused to happen next. We can keep drawing lines to show what each thing caused.

Start: This poor goose lost her foot.

Because she has one foot, she must hop.

Because she can swim, she believes she can fly.

Because she can fly away, she can fly back.

Because she can hop, she can get to the pond.

Because she can get to the pond, she can swim.

Because the goose can hop and fly and swim the goose is very happy.

Queridos familiares:

En el cuento que estoy leyendo una niña ve gansos que vuelan hacia su laguna en la primavera. Se pone muy contenta, hasta que ve a un ganso que tiene sólo una pata. En Goose's Story pasan muchas cosas. Cada cosa que pasa hace que pase otra. Espero que pase algo que haga que el ganso pueda salir volando con los demás gansos.

Chè manm fanmi :

Nan istwa m ap li a, yon jèn tifi wè kèk zwa k ap vole nan etan li an pandan sezon prentan an. Li kontan anpil jiskaske li wè yon zwa ki gen sèlman yon pye. Nan Goose's Story, gen anpil bagay ki rive. Chak bagay fè yon lòt bagay rive. Mwen espere yon bagay pral rive ki pral pèmèt zwa a gen posiblite pou l vole ak lòt zwa yo.
