Creature Feature We'll put on a play with your words. I'll ask you what each word means. Then we'll make up sentences with the words. We can use these sentences to act out a play about silly monsters.

SPELLING WORDS

leaf	mean	he	queen	need
baby	pony	seek	we	eat

Spell E for Me I'll let you see the words. Then I'll say each word for you to spell. Tell me what letters stand for the sound of e as in freeze or peas.

Dear Family Member:

Sometimes, something happens, and it makes something else happen. I can see that as I'm reading Head, Body, Legs this week. At first, a head was rolling around without a body. This made me laugh. Then, the head bumped into a tree and found two legs. I bet lots of other things are going to happen.

This Week's Skills

Comprehension: cause and effect

Vocabulary: context clues

Phonics: the sound of e as in feed

Spelling: words with e, ee, ea, ey, and y

Playtime in the Forest

Let's look at each picture and read the sentences. Then we can talk about what happens and how it makes something else happen. When we're all done, we can tell the story another way. Suppose the cat and the birds are playing on the seesaw.

"I'm having so much fun."

"Elephant, no! Don't sit on the seesaw."

"I think I need wings."

"You don't see a flying cat every day," say the birds.

BANG!

"That's fun," says the elephant. "Let's do it again!"

Queridos familiares:

A veces pasa algo y lo que pasa hace que pase algo más. Eso lo puedo ver en Head, Body, Legs, el libro que estoy leyendo esta semana. Primero había una cabeza sin cuerpo rodando por ahí. Eso me hizo reír mucho. Después la cabeza chocó contra un árbol y encontró dos piernas. Apuesto que van a pasar muchas cosas más.

Destrezas de la semana

Vocabulario: claves de contexto

¡A jugar en el bosque!

Vamos a mirar cada ilustración y leer las oraciones. Después podemos hablar de lo que pasa y de cómo eso hace que otra cosa pase. Cuando terminemos, podemos contar el cuento de otra forma. Supongamos, por ejemplo, que el gato y los pájaros están jugando en el sube y baja.

"I'm having so much fun."

"Elephant, no! Don't sit on the seesaw."

"I think I need wings."

"You don't see a flying cat every day," say the birds.

BANG!

"That's fun," says the elephant. "Let's do it again!"
