WORDS TO KNOW

A Tasty Treat Let's write a recipe with your words. First, tell me what each word means. Then let's use the words in sentences that tell how to cook something we like. We'll make up a silly recipe with the words.

Speed Spell Let's see how many words you can spell in one minute. I'll let you see the words. Then I'll cover the words and say each one for you to spell. We'll see how many words you can spell in one minute. We'll do it again, and see how many words you can spell the second time around.

Dear Family Member:

I'm reading Mice and Beans in class this week. I learned that some stories have real parts and make-believe parts. The real parts can happen in real life. The make-believe parts cannot happen! I know from the title Mice and Beans that this story has a mix of fantasy and reality. Whoever heard of mice and beans together? It's supposed to be rice and beans!

This Week's Skills

Comprehension: fantasy and reality

Vocabulary: inflected verbs

Phonics: dge, ge, lge, nge, and rge

Spelling: words ending in dge, ge, lge, nge, or rge

Upside-Down World

Something is strange in this place! Let's look at each picture. I'll help you read the words. Circle the parts of the picture that cannot happen. Then tell me why they cannot happen. When we finish, we can pick one picture and use it to tell a story that has both fantasy and reality in it.

Platillo sabroso Vamos a escribir una receta con las palabras de la lista. Primero dime qué significa cada palabra. Luego usaremos las palabras en oraciones que indiquen cómo cocinar algo que nos gusta. Crearemos una receta graciosa con esas palabras.

PALABRAS DE ORTOGRAFÍA

A toda velocidad Te mostraré todas las palabras. Luego te diré cada palabra para que tú la deletrees. Vamos a ver cuántas palabras puedes deletrear en un minuto. Después jugaremos otra vez para ver si puedes deletrear más palabras correctamente.

Queridos familiares:

Esta semana estoy leyendo en clase Mice and Beans. Aprendí que algunos cuentos tienen partes que son verdaderas y partes que son imaginarias. Las partes verdaderas pueden suceder en la vida real, pero las partes imaginarias, no. Sé por el título Mice and Beans que en este cuento hay una mezcla de fantasía y realidad. ¿Han oído a alguien hablar de ratones y frijoles alguna vez? Debería ser arroz y frijoles, ¿no?

Destrezas de la semana

Comprensión: fantasía y realidad

Vocabulario: verbos inflexionados

Fonética: dge, ge, lge, nge y rge

Ortografía: palabras terminadas en dge, ge, lge, nge o rge

Mundo patas arriba

¡Aquí pasan cosas raras! Vamos a mirar cada ilustración. Yo te ayudaré a leer las palabras. Encierra en un círculo las cosas que no pueden pasar y dime por qué no pueden pasar. Cuando terminemos, vamos a escoger una ilustración y usarla para contar un cuento donde haya fantasía y realidad.
