Road to Riches Let's go on a wild word adventure! First tell me what each word means. Then we'll use the words to describe a trip around the world. What do we see? What do we do?

SPELLING WORDS

near dear ear deer steer queer verb perch here where

Shake It Up Spelling! Let's shake up your spelling. Look at all the words briefly. Then I'll say each word for you to spell. Jump up if the word has the same sound as curb. Bend down if the word has the same sound as near. Shake your head if you do not hear either sound.

Dear Family Member:

I'm reading Music of the Stone Age in class this week. I'm learning to make judgments. This means I decide what I think or how I feel about something. This article tells how we record music today that people will hear thousands of years from now. It also tells how we've found musical instruments that are 9,000 years old. In my judgment, people have always loved music. And they always will.

This Week's Skills

Comprehension: make judgments

Vocabulary: words with more than one meaning

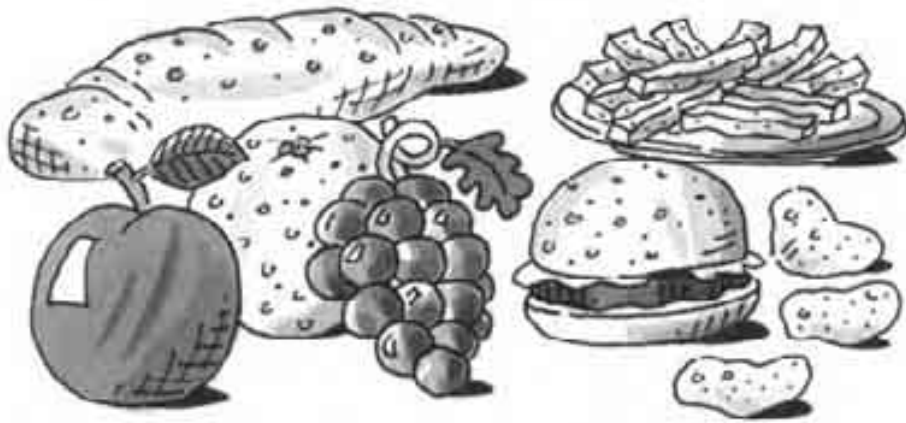

Phonics: sounds of er, eer, ere, and ear

Spelling: words with er, eer, ere, and ear

Name _____

You Be the Judge!

Look at the pictures. I'll help you read the words. Then we'll talk about each question. Let's see if we make the same judgments.

Deletreo bailado Vamos a deletrear bailando. Mira brevemente las palabras. Luego te diré cada palabra para que la deletrees. Salta si la palabra tiene el mismo sonido que curb. Inclínate si suena como near. Mueve la cabeza si no escuchas ninguno de los dos sonidos.

Queridos familiares:

Esta semana estoy leyendo en clase Music of the Stone Age. Estoy aprendiendo a hacer juicios. Eso significa que decido qué pensar sobre algo o cómo eso me afecta. Este artículo habla sobre cómo hoy día grabamos música que se podrá escuchar dentro de miles de años. Cuenta como se han encontrado instrumentos musicales que tienen 9,000 años de antigüedad. En mi opinión, a la gente siempre le ha gustado la música. Y siempre le gustará.

Destrezas de la semana
